Bata

Retail Salesman

- As a retail salesman at Bata, I had the privilege of engaging with customers on a daily basis, helping them find the ideal footwear solutions. This role allowed me to develop strong interpersonal skills, a keen eye for detail, and a deep understanding of Bata's diverse product range. My time at Bata was a valuable opportunity for personal and professional growth in the dynamic world of retail sales.

Student
Front-end web developer

- As a frontend developer, my role revolved around crafting engaging and user-friendly digital experiences. I translated design concepts into functional, visually appealing websites and web applications. My daily tasks included coding with HTML, CSS, and JavaScript to create responsive layouts and interactive features. Collaboration with designers and backend developers was crucial to ensure seamless integration of the frontend with the overall project. It was a rewarding experience where I continuously honed my coding skills and contributed to creating the face of various digital products.
